A stylized illustration of a satellite dish antenna. The dish is a vibrant orange color with a dark brown rim and a central feed horn. It is mounted on a dark brown base. Several thin, dark lines radiate from the dish towards a small, dark satellite in the upper right corner of the frame. The satellite has a small, light-colored rectangular panel. The background is a solid, light blue color.
